Close-up of couch w/Harry on right

Harry

C'mon Wally, the game's on soon!

Wally walks into shot

Wally

Well not yet...not until you move to your side of the couch!

Harry

We've been through this before,
I get the left and you get the right!

Wally

You've got it all backwards!

Harry

I'm not changing sides, again.

Wally

Well, your side's got all of your germs!

Harry

Germs? What about your side...
It's all filled with cheetos, spilled salsa, and farts galore!

My Side Of The Couch by Del Rivers

Wally

Well, if that's true, you are sitting in it, right now, idiot!

Harry

I flipped the cushions, Just in case someone switched them.

Wally

It doesn't matter...I spilled
A beer on that side and it went right through the cushion!

Harry

But my TV remote hand is on this side...I need elbow comfort.

Wally

After that last argument, we should have two remotes...
Where's the other one?

Harry

It's in between the cushion
on the other side.

Wally sits on the armrest

Wally

Move over and get it!

Harry

Alright, moron!

Wally

And when I get the food,
you better not switch back, fool!

Harry

When you get the food, grab the small pillows...
yours is the one with all the spittle on it.

My Side Of The Couch by Del Rivers

Wally

No, you get that pillow...
It was formally on the left side of the couch!

Mr. Jackson walks in

Mr. Jackson

Excuse me, what are you two doing in my furniture store?

Wide Shot of Store

Harry

We're watching a game.

Wally

Take a load off your feet,
it's just about to begin!

Mr. Jackson

Normally I would kick you two out on your heels!

Harry

Hey, there's room to sit on my side.

Wally

Or, you can sit on my side...or we can be Democratic and you can sit on the crack between us!

Mr. Jackson

(Joking) But I prefer sitting on the right side. Right is always "right", and besides, just like snack food,
who wants what is "left"!

All laugh

Notes:

This sketch can end as a "surprise" that it's in a furniture store, or with a better developed joke at the end...
