"FALLEN CLIFF"

FADE IN:

1 INT. FALLEN CLIFF RESTAURANT - BAR - NIGHT

ANNOUNCER

Imagine a starlit night... High above the city... Your favorite drinks... Your favorite loved one...

Barry and Ashley clink glasses.

ASHLEY

This is like a little piece of heaven.

BARRY

I could spend a whole month here!

ANNOUNCER

Welcome to "Fallen Cliff" bar, restaurant and hotel...

ASHLEY

What a beautiful view, darling.

BARRY

I wonder why they call it Fallen Cliff?

The bartender pours their drinks.

BARTENDER

You wouldn't get a view like that at just any resort.

ANNOUNCER

At Fallen Cliff, we've spared no expense.

2 EXTERIOR SHOT OF FALLEN CLIFF

A (doctored) photograph shows the building is actually sliding off the edge of a mountain, seemingly defying gravity.

ANNOUNCER (CONT'D)

Through the miracle of accidental suspension, the entirety of Fallen Cliff is balanced precariously on the edge of an actual cliff.

3 INT. FALLEN CLIFF - RESTAURANT - NIGHT

Barry and Ashley take their seats at a table.

ASHLEY

How exhilarating! I can feel the floor vibrating. Just what my aching feet needed.

The waitress approaches with a tray of food. The camera shakes. She dips and sways. We hear an earthquake-like rumbling.

ANNOUNCER

Our wait staff is specially trained to handle the periodic tremors you'll experience during your stay.

The waitress sets a basket of bread on the table. She fills the couple's water glasses, and the water level is crooked. She lights two candles, and the flames are also at an angle.

BARRY

I don't know what it is, but I've had butterflies in my stomach ever since we arrived!

ASHLEY

It's like we're falling in love all over again!

Ashley slips out of her chair onto the floor.

BARRY

Falling is right!

ANNOUNCER

So drop in to Fallen Cliff. The longer you stay, the harder it will be to leave.

4 INT. FALLEN CLIFF - FRONT DESK - DAY

DESK CLERK

All right, you're all checked out. Here's your rappelling gear.

The clerk lifts two coils of rope onto the desk.

Barry and Ashley are wearing helmets and Swiss seats (webbing and carabiners tied around their waists).

BARRY
I really hate to go.

ASHLEY
And that's not just the altitude talking!

BARRY
I love you honey.

ASHLEY
And I love Fallen Cliff!

The two loop their ropes over a nearby potted plant. They sling their luggage over their shoulders and exit out the window, Batman and Robin style.

ANNOUNCER
Fallen Cliff. A romantic adventure to remember.

THE END
